

ORIGAMI AND GAME

Let's see how much you can remember about what we have learned about Salvation and God's Word. Use the instructions below to create your origami and to play the game!

1. Print the origami sheet on the next page and click play for instructions to create your origami.
2. When you have created your origami, choose one of the visible pictures.
3. When a picture is chosen, open the origami then choose a question.
4. Parents, read the question aloud and give your child 30 seconds to answer.
5. When your child answers, open the flap under the question to reveal the answer. Read the answer aloud.
6. Repeat steps 2 to 5 until all the questions have been asked.
7. Tally the points at the end. A maximum of 110 points can be earned!

Points awarded as follows:

1. For every correct answer – 10 points
2. For every answer that is partially correct – 5 points
3. There are 3 questions with scripture references. Ask your child to give an example of how the scriptures can be applied. An additional 10 points can be gained for each example given.

Notes:

1. There are eight (8) questions in the game.
2. Each question and answer have a corresponding number.
3. Parents, if you wish to see all the questions and answers, click here.
